A princely Christmas walk

Regensburg, located in the heart of Bavaria, is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Thanks to fortunate fate, its old town remained completely undestroyed during the World War II. Today it is considered a „medieval wonder“ and was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2006. One of his most famous buildings is the Princely Castle of St. Emmeram, the ancestral seat of the famous and noble family of Thurn and Taxis.

The picturesque backdrop of St. Emmeram Castle gives the „Romantic Christmas Market“ an incomparable atmosphere. Hundreds of thousands of visitors come every year to feel part of the earlier days of horse-drawn carriages, noblemen and court ladies.

Protected by the imposing palace facade, the inner courtyard shines in a soft, atmospheric light from countless candles, lanterns and torches. In the middle of the lovingly decorated village of wooden cottages decorated for Christmas, a mighty, magnificently decorated Christmas tree stands out. From time to time her Highness Princess Gloria of Thurn und Taxis and her family members mingle with the guests and enjoy the magical atmosphere.

The „Princely Christ Child“ is coming!

Of course, the youngest visitors have also been thought of. The „Princely Christ Child“ appears regularly on the magnificent balcony and recites contemplative poems. With the beginning of the market, the „Princely Christ Child“ has its own heavenly mailbox at the „Romantic Christmas Market“ at Thurn und Taxis Castle. This is located directly under the magnificent balcony in the inner courtyard. Children can bring their wish list, something they have made, painted or anything else they have always wanted to share with the „Princely Christ Child“. They might put it in an envelope and throw it in the mailbox. The Christ Child will of course answer every letter personally, provided an address is stored.

Traditional handicrafts market

The atmospheric arts and crafts village in front of the charming castle backdrop takes the visitor on a journey through time. All the houses are bustling with activity: traditional craftsmen produce their goods and unique items and sell them on site. In the midst of basket weavers, goldsmiths, carvers, soap makers and many more, every guest will be fascinated by the „Romantic Christmas Market“ and its uniqueness.

The „Children’s Magic Forest“

Under centuries-old maple trees, surrounded by the sweet scent of roasted almonds and cotton candy, nostalgic rides and a natural petting zoo await young visitors in the children’s magic forest. Funny puppet theater shows and mosaic workshops stimulating the child’s imagination help shortening the long wait for the Christ Child in the „Children’s Magic Forest“.

Highlights*

Atmospheric opening ceremony: Nov. 24th from 4:30pm

Princess Gloria rocks the “Romantic Christmas Market“ at Thurn und Taxis Castle and reads the Christmas story

Also this year, Her Highness Princess Gloria of Thurn und Taxis will reinterpret well-known Christmas carols together with the popular Regensburg rock band „Sacco & Mancetti“. Above that it becomes contemplative when the princess reads the biblical „Christmas story“ according to Luke 2,1 - 20 again. An absolute crowd puller!

Atmospheric closing ceremony: 23.12. from 11.55 pm

Cultural program

The high-class cultural program plays an important role in the „Romantic Christmas Market“. Excellent singers and musicians from Regensburg and the surrounding region create a contemplative, cheerful pre-Christmas atmosphere with some centuries-old Christmas songs.*

Old Bavarian and international delicacies

Everywhere between the huts and booths, open fireplaces provide warmth and comfort. Numerous specialties are prepared over fiery embers: every evening a large cauldron with „Feuerzangenbowle“ is brewed according to a secret recipe. Visitors can choose between different hot wines: Whether „Fürstenkelch“, „Blaublut“, „Feenzauber“ or „Bürgerglück“ - there is something for every taste. Several typical gastronomic delicacies complete the culinary offer, e.g. „wild boar on a skewer“, „soup in a loaf of bread“ or the traditional „Regensburg Knackersemmel“.

The café in the castle courtyard (“Madonna Hall”)

Away from any hustle and bustle, the café in the castle courtyard offers exhausted visitors a soothing break from the Christmas stress with coffee, cake and salty delicacies. In the evening, the café in the castle courtyard is transformed into a cozy Christmas bar with attractive music.

Large log house „Thurn und Taxis“

With Bavarian hospitality, first-class delicacies, a original wood stove that gives off a cozy warmth and more than 120 seats, the large block house Thurn und Taxis attracts guests in a party mood.

Noble champagne pavilion

The noble champagne pavilion on the „Prince’s Hill“ impresses, among other things, with an exclusive range of fresh oysters and exquisite champagne.

Tip: On the plateau of the champagne pavilion you have the most beautiful view over the Christmas market and the castle.

Arcades in the east wing

The arcades in the east wing on the east side of the castle invite young and old to enjoy baked apple punch, waffles and hearty specialties in a cosy, covered and heated atmosphere.

Festivities, socializing and magical cottages

At the „Romantic Christmas Market“ you can rent lovingly decorated wooden cottages heated with a rustic wood stove for your private or business celebration! Whether Christmas huts for 12, 24 or 55 people: We offer you the right premises in an enchanting atmosphere for every social occasion. Individually tailored catering will be arranged for you. Stately dressed lackeys take care of your needs.
